Discussion/Action

Background Information

David Smallhouse has been offering Tae Kwon Do classes in our 21st CCLC after school program starting in July 2011. This year we wish to offer Tae Kwon Do classes at (2) elementary sites per each 5 week rotation. In 2011-12 we were only able to offer one rotation of Tae Kwon Do per site per school year. This year (3) additional members of the Smallhouse family, who are highly trained Tae Kwon Do teachers, will be teaming up to allow coverage at (2) sites per each enrichment rotation. Each class will have two teachers. David Smallhouse will be overseeing the Tae Kwon Do program, additional instructors and teaching (4) days per week and supplying all supplies and equipment.

Education Implications

Classes are designed to introduce the basics of Tae Kwon Do and Stranger Abduction self defense. Classes site the 5 tenants of Tae Kwon Do: Courtesy, Integrity, Perseverance, Self Control and Indomitable Spirit. These tenants are practiced throughout the class. The Goal of the class is to promote physical fitness, respect for oneself and others and Stranger Abduction self defense.

Fiscal Implications

These positions will be funded through the ASES Grant (ASP)

AGENDA ITEM: Consultant Agreement with Reading Partners

Prepared by: Janet Brinson, Director

☑ Consent
☐ Information Only
☐ Discussion/Action

Board Date
September 5, 2012

Background Information

The Reading Partners program is designed to provide individualized instruction for students. At each of its partner school sites, Reading Partners is given a dedicated space within the school. The organization recruits, trains and deploys community volunteers who work on-on-one with students. Volunteers tutor students through a “pull-out” model that operates in cooperation with the school. Reading Partners volunteers who commit to a minimum of one hour per week, receive ongoing training to support their work with students.

Educational Implications

CUSD is extremely fortunate to have an outpouring of volunteers who are dedicated to supporting our students and staff. Often times it is difficult to define roles for volunteers on a day-to-day basis. Reading Partners is a program specifically designed to assist with the coordination of volunteers. Reading Partners affords CUSD a streamlined approach to volunteerism in our schools.

Fiscal Implications

None to the General Fund.

Board Date September 5, 2012

Background Information

Adopted in California in August 2010, the K-12 Common Core State Standards were developed through a state-led effort to establish consistent and clear education standards for English language arts and mathematics. The Common Core State Standards have been formally adopted by about 90% of the states.

Education Implications

The implementation of the Common Core State Standards will have a significant impact on education at the state and local levels. Some of these include a redesign of the state assessment system, probable redesign of the state and federal accountability systems, retooling of state-teacher preparation programs, and changes in curricula, instructional practices and assessment in classrooms. CCSS offer an unprecedented opportunity for collaboration among states and districts around common language and expectations.

Fiscal Implications

Although the exact fiscal impact is not yet known, the implementation of the Common Core State Standards will have a significant impact on financial resources at the state and local levels. Some of the areas requiring fiscal resources are professional development, technology, and instructional materials.
