☐ Discussion/Action

Background Information
In order to govern effectively, Districts are required to have accurate and up-to-date Board Policies. By law, Districts are mandated to adopt many policies to ensure legal compliance. Working in conjunction with the California School Boards Association (CSBA) Policy Services, CUSD continues to update and revise Board Policies to ensure CUSD is legally compliant.

Education Implications
Up-to-date policies provide clarity to the expectations for students, parents, and staff.

Fiscal Implications
Volunteer Assistance

The Governing Board encourages parents/guardians and other members of the community to share their time, knowledge and abilities with students. Volunteer assistance in schools enriches the educational program, enhances supervision of students and contributes to school safety while strengthening the schools' relationships with the community. The Board also encourages community members to serve as mentors providing support and motivation to students.

☒ Discussion/Action

Board Date September 10, 2012

Background Information
The Reading Partners program is designed to provide individualized instruction for students. At each of its partner school sites, Reading Partners is given a dedicated space within the school. The organization recruits, trains and deploys community volunteers who work one-on-one with students. Volunteers tutor students through a “pull-out” model that operates in cooperation with the school. Reading Partners volunteers who commit to a minimum of one hour per week, receive ongoing training to support their work with students.

Educational Implications
CUSD is extremely fortunate to have an outpouring of volunteers who are dedicated to supporting our students and staff. Often times it is difficult to define roles for volunteers on a day-to-day basis. Reading Partners is a program specifically designed to assist with the coordination of volunteers. Reading Partners affords CUSD a streamlined approach to volunteerism in our schools.

Fiscal Implications
None to the General Fund.
