JLD Proposal 2016-2017

The Junior Leadership Development Program's mission is to ensure every youth is provided the skills to overcome situational obstacles and given the resources and opportunity to achieve the utmost in their personal, professional and community membership goals. On our way to fulfilling that mission, we have designed a one-on-one mentoring program that follows guidelines outlined in the Mentoring Best Practices and we have successfully implemented it over the last four years reaching close to 200 youth in the Chico Community. This program in particular is designed to serve 15 junior high school students at Bidwell Jr. High School during the Spring of 2017. The purpose of this project is to better engage students on campus, improve attendance, improve academics, prevent high school dropouts and increase the likelihood of post-secondary education by pairing targeted students with a positive caring adult mentor. This program would be managed and facilitated as a collective effort by the following individuals:

Program Director/Oversight - Leonard Lopez
Site Coordinator - School Faculty/Staff Member
Program Manager - Jacob Peterson
Program Resource Coordinator (JLD)
Match Support Specialist (JLD)

Did you know?
According to the Mentor Research Foundation, students who met regularly with a positive caring adult mentor consistently are:

- 52% less likely to skip a day of school
- 37% less likely to skip a class
- 81% more likely to participate in extracurricular activities
- 78% more likely to volunteer in their communities
- More than twice as likely to hold a leadership position in a club/on a sports team
This mentoring program is designed for matches to meet every week and include both instructional and relational-based activities. Our model is closely related to the Check & Connect Model giving students and mentors the opportunity to check in on grades and attendance, then connect through student-led activities. The first few weeks however students and mentors will focus on completing Get to Know you activities together. Each program will have two JLPD Facilitators present overseeing and supporting matches to ensure a successful and productive meeting.

Some Relational Activities may include:
- Getting to Know You activities
- Activities/Worksheets focusing on Positive Role Models
- Common Interest Identifier Activities

Some Instructional Activities may include:
- College and Career Readiness Worksheets
- College Checklist Worksheet

7 Health Benefits of Drinking Oxygenated Water
• Reduces Cancer Risk
• Naturally Boosts Immune Defense
• Improves Digestion
• Promotes Aerobic Respiration
• Reduces Lactic Acidosis
• Maintains a Healthy pH Range
• Boosts Energy Levels

RMC Water Unit (BJHS)
7 Health Benefits of Drinking Oxygenated Water

One of the most important benefits of drinking oxygenated water is that it helps strengthen the immune system. The oxygen-rich environment created by drinking this water promotes the growth of good bacteria, but makes it incapable for the harmful bacteria to survive.

Oxygen water is water that has been enriched with oxygen. It contains extra added oxygen as compared to other types of drinking water. Producing oxygenated water is a multistage process, in which, firstly the water is filtered to get rid of impurities. Charged active oxygen is then allowed to combine with purified water to produce water enriched with oxygen. Unlike energy drinks that often contain a lot of sugar and other chemicals, oxygenated water is a pure mix of water and oxygen, and nothing else. Drinking this water containing high levels of dissolved oxygen is said to provide plenty of benefits.

Naturally Boosts Immune Defense
When you drink oxygenated water, you are essentially providing an oxygen-rich environment to your body. Such an environment provides good growing conditions for the 'friendly bacteria' that reside in the digestive system. Whereas, disease-causing pathogens do not survive when there is inadequate oxygen. The viruses and the bacteria that cause a host of infection die, but the 'good' bacteria flourish in an oxygen-rich environment. Thus, drinking oxygenated water regularly can help combat and even prevent infections, by improving immunity.

Improves Digestion
The friendly bacteria that reside in our intestines help in the breakdown of ingested food and promote digestion. As good bacteria thrive in oxygen-rich conditions, drinking oxygenated water may contribute to improving digestion.

Promotes Aerobic Respiration
Cellular respiration, in which the cells derive energy from the food ingested, can be either aerobic or anaerobic. When cellular respiration occurs in the presence of oxygen, it is called aerobic respiration, and when it occurs in the absence of oxygen, it is called anaerobic respiration. Aerobic respiration is considered to be the most effective way to obtain energy from food molecules.

Reduces Lactic Acidosis
Lactic acidosis is a condition in which there is excess accumulation of lactic acid—a by-product of anaerobic respiration—in the blood and a sharp fall in oxygen levels. This usually occurs when performing exercise at a high intensity. During an intense exercise session, oxygen requirements of the muscle tissues are greater than the blood can supply. Hence, the body switches from an aerobic to an anaerobic mode (absence of oxygen) for energy production. However, too much of lactic acid is often responsible for causing muscle aches, fatigue, and prolonged recovery periods. In order to significantly decrease lactic acidosis and maximize oxygen delivery, drinking oxygenated water during exercise is recommended. This oxygen-enriched water delays anaerobic respiration during exercise, which helps boost performance output.

Maintains a Healthy pH Range
Striking the right body pH balance is the key to staying healthy. Often, eating the wrong food lowers the body's pH, creating an acidic environment. However, drinking oxygenated water encourages an oxygen-rich alkaline environment, thereby helping to balance pH levels. So, apart from eating healthy foods, drinking this oxygen-enriched water promotes alkalinity counterbalances the acidic environment created by certain foods.

Boosts Energy Levels
With more oxygen circulating in the bloodstream, you may feel more energetic, alert, and less tired during the day. Drinking oxygenated water can help maintain blood oxygen in the healthy range. This ensures that your blood transports enough oxygen to the muscles and the brain, thus boosting overall stamina and well-being.

Reduces Cancer Risk
Cancer cells tend to multiply in a low-oxygen environment. However, by drinking oxygenated water regularly, more oxygen is available at the cellular level, making it difficult for cancer cells to live. This oxygen-infused water that creates an oxygen-rich environment may help protect the body from cancerous growth.

AGENDA ITEM: SPARK Training for PEP Grant

Prepared by: John Bohannon, Director, Ed Services

☐ Consent  Board Date December 14, 2016
☐ Information Only
☐ Discussion/Action

Background Information

We have been awarded the National PEP Grant for (3) years to be used in the BLAST After School Programs at the Elementary and Junior High Sites. We have specifically written in the use of the SPARK curriculum to use within this grant as it is compatabile to the goals of the grant and is very accessible curriculum for CARD employees to use under their CUSD Teacher's direction. However, the equipment does require training to implement it to its fullest potential.

Educational Implications

The SPARK Program will provide us with (2) seperate trainings, with the first on January 14, 2017 and the second at a date TBA, but before June of 2017. The attached contract shows the cost of these two trainings and the travel expenses for the trainers to come to Chico for both trainings.

Fiscal Implications

All financial payments for the curriculum and the trainings will come directly from the PEP Grant funded account.

Educational Implications: This grant funding will enhance our existing BLAST ASP by providing instruction in fitness and Physical Ed, expanding nutrition education, and helping students understand how important physical activity is to their health and well being. Project activities will be carried out with the help of partnerships with CARD First Tee (a youth development program that teaches core live skills and values through the game of golf), and CSU, Chico's Center for Healthy Communities (which is providing us with support in Harvest of the Month tastings and nutrition education).

SPARK After School Premium Training Day #1/2: January 21, 2017
SPARK After School Premium Training Day #2/2: TBD, between February-April, 2017

SPARK workshops solicit philosophical "buy-in," show teachers how to navigate manual and website content, then prepare effective lessons, and provide active examples that foster experiential learning.

SPARK training is truly a special event: Smiles are prevalent, laughter frequent, and a special rapport occurs between participants and their trainer. Participants leave ready, willing and able to implement SPARK effectively and maximize student outcomes.

SPARK Standard Program Provides:
- A Project Coordinator: Oversees delivery of all components and serves as liaison and single point of contact to the contracted school/agency and its representatives
- Four evaluative tools and the consultation on how to use them (needs assessments, in-service evaluations, lesson quality checklists, and program evaluations)
- An estimated 3 hours trainer preparation time for each SPARK training
- 3 hours for set-up and take down at each training
- (6) hours of active instruction led by a SPARK Certified Trainer
- Targeted handouts for each participant and SPARK raffle prizes (e.g., t-shirt, clipboard, water bottle, equipment, etc.)
- SPARK Star® Training and Materials
- Each person attending earns a SPARK Certificate of Completion

SPARK Premium Package -- All Standard PLUS:
- Additional 6-hour workshop (new content and more instructional strategies)
- Second SPARK *Star meeting
- Attendees receive "SPARK Certification Awards"
- Participants eligible for a unit of credit from San Diego State University (additional cost)
- Colorful SPARK Banner

Participants: TBD; not to exceed 40 participants maximum.
of SPARK Stars: TBD
In-service Location: Chico, CA
Sessions (or trips): 2 sessions, 2 trips
Airport: SMF

Thank you for the opportunity to draft this proposal.
