       3.1.1. Information: Measure E – Progress Report on Preliminary Findings, and Alternatives Discussion for the District Facilities Master Plan
       At 5:06 p.m. Director Michael Weissenborn presented an overview and turned the meeting over to Marty Dietz with Darden Architects. Mr. Dietz introduced members of the review team: Tim Haley, Haley Gipe, Mike Cannon, Ken Reynolds, Jody Rentzel, and Ellen Hooper. Mr. Dietz explained that for months they have been visiting all CUSD campuses, examining every classroom and campus space in the district. They also monitored public discussions, as well as met with staff and faculty at individual school sites. They presented a PowerPoint of their findings and stated the data suggests the elementary student segment of the district’s population will grow beyond the holding capacity of the existing campuses. Seven potential options were presented for the Board’s review. Board members shared their concerns regarding the need for flexibility, looking beyond brick and mortar, increased technological needs, and the importance of setting aside funds to use for maintenance. The Board removed four options (B, C, E, and F). The remaining three options included: 1) the construction of a 23-classroom elementary school, plus building 20 new classrooms among five existing elementary school sites; 2) the conversion of one junior high to a K-6, plus build 20 new classrooms at existing schools; and 3) the conversion of all junior highs to 6-8 middle schools, plus build 12 classrooms among 3 existing elementary schools. Discussions will continue and additional meetings for community input are planned.

At 7:02 p.m. Board President Griffin announced there would be a five minute break before the Board moved into Closed Session.
