COMMENDATIONS AND AWARDS

Any Board of Education member, employee, parent/guardian, student or community member may submit the name of an individual or organization along with supporting rationale to the Superintendent or designee for Board recognition.

In addition, persons proposing the recognition of an individual or organization may also indicate a suggested type of recognition which may include, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Plaques or awards to be presented at a Board meeting, for providing the district or community with special, unusual or long-term assistance.
2. Board Resolution to be read at a Board meeting, for distinguished service to children and youth.
3. Letter of Recognition to be shared with the Board, for significant achievement and/or service. Examples could include athletic teams, fine and performing arts groups, service organizations, student leadership, parent/guardian/community organizations, etc.
4. Receptions and other informal recognition activities.
