Background Information:

May 7, 2013, has been designated as California Day of the Teacher. We in Chico Unified School District are blessed to have an excellent teaching staff that is committed to student support and achievement. This resolution designates that day as Teacher Appreciation Day in CUSD as well and reminds all of us to continue to pay tribute to public school teachers. Teachers perform miracles every day given the ongoing budget crisis, increasing academic expectations and the often challenging life experiences faced by many of our students.
