5. DISCUSSION/ACTION CALENDAR (Approximate Start Time 6:45 PM)
   1. BUSINESS SERVICES
      1. DISCUSSION/ACTION: Fair View High School Restrooms Modernization
         At 6:57 p.m., Director Julie Kistie shared that as a part of the Board Approved COVID ESSEER funded projects on April 21, 2021, the Board approved the addition of Shade Structures at various schools district-wide. Fair View High School (FVHS) is slated to receive two large shade structures to accommodate Physical Education for its unique student population. Upon investigation, the Division of State Architect (DSA) stated the FVHS restrooms are not currently meeting the needs of students, nor are they Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliant.

         A request was brought before the Board to amend the Facilities Master Plan to move the renovation of the Fair View High student restrooms from Phase Five to the current Phase Four of the Facilities Master Plan for immediate completion. The anticipated cost of renovating these restrooms is $400K.

         A motion was made to authorize moving Fair View High School to the current planning phase.

         The Board discussed the shade structure logistics, planning restroom renovations and supporting the student population at Fair View High School.
