were placed with Chico ER and Chico News & Review, but we did not get any applicants. There was discussion regarding what organizations could count as a senior citizens' group. More research will done to ensure proper representation.

Member Spain also announced that her position with the IRS Committee had term ended, so she no longer was active in a bona-fide taxpayers association. This representation will also need to be filled.

5. Review Construction/Modernization Expenditures
CUSD Kistle distributed copies of the current Measure E Expenditures Report showing total expenditures of $20 million. Highlighted safety and security projects including signs, fencing, and lighting at various schools, the Shade Structure at Hooker Oak School that was needed after some diseased trees were removed, and the Kindergarten structures that will be added at Emma Wilson Elementary.

Committee Chair Francis suggested CUSD provide a report that shows total budget for each project with all expenditures. Currently, the report only shows the budget and expenses for this 2018-2019 fiscal year.

6. Measure E, Series B Bond Sale
CUSD Bultega shared information about the sale of Measure E, Series B Bonds. The District issued this second series of bonds in the amount of $30 million. 50.8 million total cost for the tax payer. CUSD Bultega mentioned that the original 30-year bond was lowered to 23 years and shared the Net Debt Service report.

Committee Chair Francis shared his concern which was previously discussed regarding the use of premium sale proceeds to pay interest. Mentioned that bond proceeds cannot be used to pay interest. Is concerned that CUSD is "borrowing" money to pay interest for the first year and a half. CUSD Bultega assured the committee that market wanted premium and wanted the best sale, with lowest overall cost. Mr. Bultega will speak with the bond
